

Dear All Lovers of Jerusalem,

We are attaching a list of events that has come together over the past few months under the aegis of "A Different Day in Jerusalem," an alternative celebration of Jerusalem Day. This list includes some 50 events, and we would like to be able to reach anyone and everyone who might be interested in taking part.

We would appreciate it if you could distribute this message to your mailing lists so that we can reach as many individuals and organizations as possible, especially those for whom Jerusalem, Jerusalem Day, and tolerance are close to their hearts.

Jerusalem Day is just around the corner, but as opposed to other years, this year it can be commemorated in a wide variety of ways that are appropriate for anyone who lives in the city. Dozens of events are taking place as part of "A Different Day in Jerusalem," which seeks to celebrate the vast human diversity that lives in Jerusalem and to turn Jerusalem Day into one that respects all groups and sectors in the city.

Below is a partial list of events (for a full list see the web site or the Facebook event). We invite you to take a minute, go over all the events, and choose one (or several) to attend, and become a part of the diversity of voices that are calling to re-claim Jerusalem Day.

See you there!
